

Studies in Christian Doctrine and Discipline (Course #B1B231H)

Monday through Friday, 9:57-10:41

(Our full-time sophomores take this course; however, it is open to 9-12 grade homeschool students)

Instructor: Tim Casey, M. A.

Course prerequisites: None

Description: a study in the transformation of thinking and behavior for those who belong to the Kingdom of God. To help students think correctly about Christian doctrine as well as to put into practice the spiritual disciplines of Christianity. Students will be equipped to apply theological truths in daily life situations

Introduction to Christian Principles (Course #B1B131H)

Monday through Friday, 10:44-11:28

(Our full-time freshmen take this course; however, it is open to 9-12 grade homeschool students)

Instructor: Tim Casey, M. A.

Course prerequisites: None

Purpose: the purpose of this course is to help students understand the Kingdom of Jesus Christ through accurate study of Bible text that includes understanding the authors' intent in its original historical and literary context. Students will learn the proper steps of interpretation, understand the overarching story of God's kingdom in both the Old and New Testaments, will learn about Jesus in a relational way through personal study of the Gospels, and will be enabled to recognize and practice cognitive and relational ways to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ.

