Summer Workbooks Due this week!

Summer break is peeking around the corner, ready to sweep students off their feet with some sunshine fun. But, hold up! Did you know that without flexing those brain muscles, kids might wave goodbye to two months of school skills? Fear not, for there's a nifty workbook adventure waiting from BJU Press to keep those gears turning. Just one page a day, five days a week, for a breezy 20 minutes. With 50 pages in total, it's like a cool summer quest to keep those academic powers charged up! Plus, parents get the superpower of checking answers. Pop by the office to take a sneak a peek at the workbook wonders. Only $16 each, so snag yours before May 2 to join the brainy summer squad!

Friday, May 3

This is a full day of school making up one of our snow days.

Art Show

Please join us after school for Isaac Newton Christian Academy's Annual Art Show! The show is Monday, May 13, 3:00-5:30. Students will have artwork on display.

Feeding the 5000 Food Drive

The Community Service class is collecting non-perishable Food items and Hygiene supplies for Mission of Hope, April 4-May3. Items brought to school can be given to homeroom teachers. The winning class will receive a popcorn & pajama day

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Congratulations to our high school students who have met the rigorous qualifications to be inducted into the National Honor Society. The National Honor Society is open to students in grades 10-12 who meet the minimum GPA requirement of 3.5 and who embody the NHS membership pillars of Scholarship, Service, Leadership and Character. These students applied for membership and were approved by our school's NHS Faculty Council. The ceremony will be held at the school on Friday, May 3 during Chapel.

The students' being inducted are:

Anna Bennett, Danielle Nicholson, and Julianne Singleton
